Abstract of the Will of John Garrett of Crick, yeoman (b 1675)

Made 29 March 1747, Proved 12 May 1750

Left the cottage where he lived with Thomas Whitmell to John Pike, son of his executor William Pike when he reached the age of 25, and in the meantime all the rents and profits were to go to William Pike. If John Pike died before the age of 25, the cottage was to go to his brother James.

To Mary and Elizabeth Pike, sisters of the said John Pike, £10 each

To Mary, wife of William Pike a quarter yardland in the open fields of Crick called Hall Land, now in the occupation of Thomas Whitmell for the term of her natural life and after her death to her son John Pike

A half quarter yardland in the open fields of Crick called Plowman's Land now in the occupation of Thomas Whitmell to my kinsman William Pike

To my kinswoman Ann Odams, wife of John Odams of Braunston, yeoman, £10

To my kinswoman Mary Lee of Crick, spinster, £3

To John Marson of Crick, yeoman, 2s

To Elizabeth Buntin, wife of (.....) Buntin of Long Buckby, £3

To Elizabeth Robinson, wife of John Robinson of Crick, £10

To Edward Marson, brother of Thomas, £30

To William Pike my quarter yardland called Hayne Land in the open fields of Crick now in the occupation of Thomas Whitmell

To my kinsman William Marson of Crick for his lifetime all my quarter yardland in the open fields of Crick called Hayne Land and after his death to the heirs of my kinsman William Marson.

I direct my executor to lay out £40 on the purchase of a house in Crick to be settled on William Marson for the term of his natural life and after his death to his heirs lawfully begotten.

The residue of my estate I give to my kinsman William Pike whom I make my executor.

John Garrett son of Edward (b 1642).

John was a distant cousin of the curate.

Its interesting that there are no Garretts in his will.
